Subject: PFAS Sharepoint Site

Hi Mark, Erin, and Michael,

You should now have access to the PFAS Sharepoint site. This site is an internal communication tool to connect those of us working on multimedia PFAS issues, research, and program activities throughout the Agency. Feel free to browse or upload information that may benefit others.

You should also have access to the Wolverine folder. Only people working on that case have access to the folder.

Although this is an internal Sharepoint site, please note that all discussions and information submitted are subject to FOIA.

Feel free to contact me if you have any questions or problems.

Take care,
Jenny
